

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

The argument that restricting media monopoly will prohibit diversity is simply false based on the definitions of the terms involved in the premise. It's elementary.

Don't serve corporate power tyranny.

Reign in the patriarchal power structures that destroy true democracy.

The results of our failures to do so in the past are all around us.

Who's future?
